Symphony Plastic Technologies PLC Victory in the Court of Appeal

Symphony Plastic Technologies ("Symphony"), the degradable plastics company, today reports that the hearing of the Appeal brought by Environmental Products Inc (EPI) against the decision of the High Court of 21st December 2004 in favour of Symphony has now concluded.

The Court of Appeal dismissed EPI's appeal and refused leave to Appeal to the House of Lords. The written judgement of the Court will follow in due course.

Michael Laurier, Chief Executive Officer of Symphony, said:

"After nearly two years we are delighted that the Courts have finally confirmed what we have known all along. This case has caused difficulties and distractions and this clear decision now allows us to turn all our resources back into realising the many opportunities open to us"

Further information on Symphony Plastic Technologies plc

Symphony develops and supplies environmentally responsible plastic packaging products and additives, which are distributed primarily to the retail, local authority and health related sectors. The Group's main technology, d2w®, allows plastic to degrade, leaving only water, a minimal amount of carbon dioxide and trace amounts of non-toxic biomass over a short time period. The d2w® product range now includes additives, carrier bags, refuse sacks, mailing wrap, stretch film, aprons, and packaging films.

Symphony has a strong blue-chip customer base in the UK and has successfully established itself as an international business after signing distribution agreements with companies in Brazil, Canada & USA, New Zealand, South Africa, the Caribbean, Saudi Arabia, Colombia and Qatar.
